

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1866.

An association known as the "Impartial Suffrage League," held a meeting last week in Boston. Among the resolutions adopted was one declaring "that the true doctrine of revonstruction is, that defeated Rebels have no civil or poli ical tights which loyal men are bound to respect." Exactly. This is the legitimate conclusion of much of the radicalism that is now rampant. It is agrarianism at last. And if successful, it will not be limited to "rebels, or their rights or their property. Look out, afterwards and next, for the rights and "property" of other people, who stand in the way of those who want "property," and will and it easier to take it, than to work for it. We pity the rail olds and the banks; for they will be easy to reach! "Loyal men" can as readily make others disloyal, by a phraze, as the French Jacobius could pronounce half of their countrymes, "suspect."

It seems that the dignitaties from Washington, who attended Gen. Scott's funeral, Vice President Foster, Speaker Colfax, and the Committees of Congress were rather unceremore usly trated, both at New York and West Point. "No di-crimina i in between them and the rest of the vi-itor."-no "arrangements for their accommodation"-nothing for them to eat or drink," pur on "a steamboat crowded with other pas engers," &c., &c. Whereupon offence being taken, it is significantly added that "the Military Acidemy needs many improvements; but above all, it requires younger, more energetic, and more liberal men at its heid," We presume if the West Point au thorivies had provided steamboats, eccommoda i ns, fool, and drink, &c., to these dignitaries from Washington, they would have been pronounced sufficiently "energetic and liberal," not to say "young."

The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail says: "There are a great many reople in the world who cantot understand, or are unwilling to understand. when a game is lost. A proper name by which such people might be called would be "last ditch nien." They are like tlundering for the District of Columbia, in Washington, chess players who persist in playing out the game af r he king is involved in such inextreable difficulties that a mate is only a ques tion of time. Meanwh le the blund rer goes on throwing away cas les, knights, bishops, and pawn with no object in the worls." The remark i- suggest v., when applied either to national, State, or private affairs.

A d-spat h from Richmond, dated yesterday, says: "Judge U derwood has not yet ar rived, consequently there will be no session of of the United States Court to-day. Eminent lawyers express the opinion that the adjourn ment of the Circuit Court from Norfolk Lo Richmond, after the indictment of Jefferson Davis was unauthorized by law, and hence the order of adjournment is a nullity. If this is correct, the only act on of the court will be to discharge the genad jury."

The House of Representatives yesterday adopt da preamble and resolution calling on the President to inform the House whether any of the military or civil em, loy es of the Government have countenanced or assisted in the late ceremonies to the Confederate dead in the Southern Sa es, and whether the same privileges have ben denied to pers us wishing to pay respect to the graves of Union soldiers, and if such persons have been obstructed by the Southern authorities.

The receipts from customs at the several Southern ports last month were anusually large -those at New Orleans alone amounting to about two millions. The total receipts from this source, when all the ports are heard from. will amount, it is estimated, to nearly seventeen millious of dollars in gold.

There is a continued leaning towards the "Mexican loan," in certain political quarters. Guarantees of "territory" are talked of, if Juarez's government succeeds-territory said to be "of little value to Mexico, essential to us." The pot is boiling-not the plot.

The Washington Chronicle says: "The Senare yesterday passed the three remaining sections of the new amendment of the Nationa Consiution without a call of the ayes and noes, an unusual proceeding on so grave a ques-

A row occurred on Friday night last between son e Federal so die s and some negries, in Richm nd, in which, a black m n was thrown igto the dock, and drown d ty the soldiers.

A case to test the constitutionality of the Virginia S ay Law is before the Circuit Court ia Richmond.

We are told in the official account of the proceedings of the "New School Presbyterian General Assembly, recently he'd in St. Louis," that when they passed their political, radical by your honorable bodies, under the provisions resolutions, and when that one, caling for of the recent act to appoint six Physicians to "condiga punishment upon the prominent rebels," especially, was passed, "the Assembly mission, respectfully state that except in cases applauded LOUDLY." Of course; they have no sins, worthy of "condign punishment," for which, hereaf er, they hope for merey and forgiveness! Not they! Would they like the measure which they would mete out to others, when they stand before a great judgment seat to be judged for treason to God (?) and rebellion against the holy teachings of a Saviour who commanded them to forgive even their enemies? If "condign punishment" is to be asked for political offences, ought it not to be remembered that there are other offences, of which, if these self righteous, precious clamorers for pun- i. manifestly unjust to call upon them to render ishment, are not, or have not been guilty, they gratuitous professional services to a self susare hypocricical liars, when they daily exclaim, "God be merciful to me, a sinner!"

"THE LOST CAUSE," being a History of the late war, by Elward A. Pollard, of Virginia, is now in course of publication, and will be sold to subscribers, who can enter their subscriptions at the Lookstore of Geo. E. French. A few specimen pages, with copies of beautiful steel engravings of distinguished Confederate officers have been sent to us, and the book will be very handsomely printed. It is quite probable, judging from the specimen pages, that we shall not agree with the author in his estimate of the character of men, or his opinions concerning measures. But the value of the work will be, in the details of the late war, "drawn from official sources."

The New York Herald says:-"If there be war in Europe it is likely to be on a vast scale and a very expensive one. All great wars in modern times are made at immense cost and necessarily upon credit. This country accumulated a debt of three thousand millions of dollars within the short period of four years. This as Mr. Gladstone remarked, "is something wonderful"-is something, perhaps, which no other country is capable of accomplishing. I the total amount it is three-fourths as large as the debt of Great Britain, and the amount of yearly interest is great r."

The "National Fair for the benefit of the Home for Soldiers' and Sailors' Ochans," will be opened in Washington to-morrow evening, when it is expected the President will be present. The building in which the Fair is to be held is at the corner of Seventh street and Dowager of Saxony, the daughters of the late Pennsylvania Avenue.

If, after what has passed, the Fenian, "exci ement" is stilkept up, it will be a strong exempl fication of the poet's idea that "Hope springs eternal in the human breast."

Latest fron Europe. By the arrival of the Nova S otian, off Flori da Point we have advices from Europe to the 25th ult. The political situation was unchanged. Letter- f.om Paris state that France Warapidly placing her army on a war tooting. -The Moniteur, however, denies the statement on what is said to be the highest authority.-A number of additional failures had occurred in England and financial affairs were gloomy. The Prussian Government has prohibited the exportation of corn, hay or straw across the frontiers from those districts that are mo-tlikely to be nearest the seat of war. The Queen Dowager of Prussia, the Princess Sophia, mo her of the Emperor of Austria, the Queen King Maximilian, of Bavaria, are univing heir efforts at Vienea and at Dresden to bring about the resignation of Count Bismarck. Count Mensdorf and Biron Beu t, respectivey, and the appointment of new Promiers, to faciliare an amicable adjustment of existing difficu ties. Biron Rothschill, of Frankfort, and the Messrs. Oppenheim, of Frankfort. have bo h declined to raise a loan for the Prussin Government. Prussia accepts the Euro pean Concress. Peace meetings were mulitplying throughout the kingd m, and various Destructive files have recently occurred in low s were to s nd deputa i ns to Berlin to Albien, Middletown, and Cherry Valley, in the perition for the preservation of peace. Rustin is said to be red using her efforts to bring about an a iju-tment of the quarrel. Princ. The Fenian Movement.

There is great exci ement in New York over the recent invasion of Canada by a detechmen of Fenians, the skirmishes that en-uel, and the final retreat of the Fenianst, the American side of the frontier line. There is very little additional news to report from the torder. The Federal Government is taking precautions to prevent any more raids. The Fenian prisoners continued, at the last advices, in custody of the officer of the steamer Michigan. From seventy to one hundred Fedians appear to have tean left behind in Canada, either as killed wounded, or prisoners. Gen. Sweeny has issu d a proclamati n to the Conadians, explaining the notives of the Fenins in invad ng Canada; declaring that they have no ssue with the Canad an people, with whom they desire to remain on the most friendly relations, but warning them that if they refuse to welcome the Fenian as friends, they must be met as enemies. Gen. Sweenev styles himself in the procamaton "Major Gener I commanding the armies of Ireland." Notwithstanding the retreat of the Feniaus from Canada, there continues to be great excitement in regard to the movement at New York and The telegram from New York, which ap- elsewhere, and large booles of men are arming and numbers are leaving hourly for the frontier. Contributions are said to be once more flowing into the treasury, and the Irish bonds, it is also alleged, are seiling rapidly. (?) Many Fenians now protes to regard the recent rail as a mere feint, and predict another inva-

In the House it was as usual on Mondays, 'resolution'' day and a numl er were offered on a variety of subjects one of which proposed to endorse the F. n an movement and to recognize them as telligerents. This was laid over .-The bill "to provide for r. storing to the States lately in repellion their policied rights" wathen taken up and debated until the nour of adjournment.

[COMMUNICATED. The honest effort of the Common Council to pay the public debt of the corporation-which has to be paid-is stigmanzed and abused, as it people were to be allowed to get rid of their creditors, and repudiate their obligations !-When the 180 cts. are talked of, please deduct the discount for prompt payment, and ee what the real taxation is! But, if it were twice as much, does it lie in the mouth of certain per ple to say a word, when for four years they nave h d the exclusive control of the corporation and is finances; had the military to back and assist them; had their streets paved an! their police department taken care of by outsiders; had a thriving and large busin ss to ticenses and other receipts; and yer, with an this, and more too! left the city when it was restored to our own people, in the condition in which it now is, wish its mavy bursh as to shoulder, and its cent to be provided for by taxation on the business and property of those who remain, whilst bundreds of those, who have rioted upon our lo-ses and erj yed all the advantages with scarcely any of the expense, have "pulled up stakes" and de parte I for more congenial comes, or for parts unknown. The puthe, we those most heavily taxed, and I am one of them, are getting sick of this impudent talk about taxes; coming from the s unce it frequently dies!
